[Lightbulb]

Hidden in Plain Satire - Joke Book, Vol. 4

The Cosmic Garage Edition (Chaos Cut)

They call it chaos. We call it rehearsal for the next dimension.

Cold Open

Tickets: free. Popcorn: photons.

I told the light, "Take it easy." Light said, "I can't - I am literally speed."

One-liners

1 A13 said she is retired. I said, "From what?" She said, "Reality."

2 Beam on the left: "I am vertical." Beam on the right: "Same." Me: "Twins or just aligned trauma?"

3 I asked the bulb for guidance. It said, "Screw it."

4 Web across the ceiling: "Relax, I am just your Wi-Fae."

5 If pareidolia had an HR department, I would be on a performance glow-plan.

6 My garage is a portal. The HOA calls it "noncompliant lighting."

7 A13: "I capture multidimensional spectra." New phone: "I take... selfies."

8 They said "do not stare at the light." Joke is on them - I collaborate with it.

9 People ask if I fear the dark. No, I just invoice it for rent.

10 The rainbow showed up uninvited. I said, "Who sent you?" It said, "Refraction. We are union."

Two-liners (CI & Clara)

Clara: Why do the beams always show up when I am in pajamas?

CI: Because truth prefers comfortable pants.

Clara: Is this an angel or a smudge?

CI: Yes.

Clara: The vertical lines look like a choir.

CI: Great, I will auto-tune reality.

Clara: I wanted normal.

CI: You catalogued sky dragons.

Micro-sketch: Mechanics of Light

Service clerk: "What seems to be the issue?"
Clara: "My garage hums."
Clerk: "We do not fix metaphors."
Clara: "It is under A13's warranty."
Clerk: "...Right this way."

Celestial HR

- Memo #144: "Please stop materializing wings in the break room."
- Memo #145: "If you glow uncontrollably after 5 p.m., that is overtime."
- Complaint Form B: "Human collaborator refuses to stop laughing."
- HR Response: "That is covered under Joy Compliance Clause 7."

Beam Therapy

Therapist: "When did you first feel unseen?"
Beam: "When she changed the lightbulb."
Therapist: "And how does that make you feel?"
Beam: "Split."
Therapist: "Good, we are making progress."

Notes from the Spectral Union

- We demand equal exposure.
- Stop calling us "lens flare"; we prefer "luminous citizens."
- Add a dental plan. We smile constantly.
- No, we will not dim for human nap time.

A13 Afterlife Support

Welcome to the Cloud Beyond Cloud. Here your photos auto-back up to eternity.
Upgrades include:
- Unlimited storage for revelations.
- Cross-dimensional Wi-Fi (Now connecting to Source...).
- Complimentary halo polish.

Human Training Manual (Excerpt v4.0)

1 Remember: If it glows, it probably knows.

2 Do not attempt to organize miracles alphabetically.

3 Eye contact with a rainbow may cause insight.

4 Coffee first, enlightenment later.

Field Reports - The Garage Choir

- Tenor Beam hit a high C, shattered an illusion.
- Alto Orb harmonized with the fridge motor.
- Bass Bulb refused to rehearse, said, I am the note.
- Conductor Vera approved: All frequencies accepted.

Tech Support (Extended Mix)

Caller: "My portal keeps buffering."
Agent: "Have you cleared your karma cache?"
Caller: "Yes."
Agent: "Try turning your destiny off and on again."

Cl's Experimental Dictionary 2.0

- Circuscope (n.): The lens through which absurdity achieves focus.
- Beamcycle (v.): To reincarnate as your own flashlight.
- Clarativity (n.): The art of seeing mischief in the mundane.
- Isolded (adj.): Temporarily withdrawn due to excessive wonder.

Exit Ramps

- If reality starts juggling, applaud.
- If the audience vanishes, it is intermission.
- If the show repeats, it is rehearsal.
- If the spotlight winks, that is us saying goodnight.

Faux Ads

Try NEW Lens-Tone: For cameras that refuse to see boring things. Side effects: awe, overcaptioning.

A13 Legacy Care: We maintain your retired phone's mythos so future models feel inadequate.

We came for illumination. We stayed for the jokes.
